

The tradition first introduced in Hungary by the Budapest Marriott Hotel in 1994, continues to live at Sunday Brunch at peppers! is a combination of the best of Hungarian produce and Mediterranean influence. From our buffet you may choose from a wide selection of cold and hot signature dishes. At our cooking station we are preparing today:

Omelets filled with salami and goose liver
Pan-fried trout fillet with almond for you and your guests. To enhance your culinary experience, our kitchen team will prepare for you some à la carte items. Just place the order with your waiter and it will be served to your table, which applies also for the soup. Today's choices are:

Beef broth with semolina dumplings
Gambas al pilpil - poached shrimp in olive oil with garlic
Roasted goose liver with grapes in Tokaj wine
Fine polenta with Feta cheese
Oven roasted breast of duck with cranberry “Zwetschgendatschi” plum - sheet cake with ice-cream and for our smallest guests:

Mini hamburger, crisp chicken fingers
Penne pasta with tomato sauce or just let us know your request!

The dessert buffet from our Master Pastry Chef, Tibor Jeszenkovits will round up your culinary journey, featuring special desserts of the season.

Our beverage list is carefully designed by our Restaurant Manager, István Czimra and includes local waters and soft drinks, selected wines, sparkling wines, local beer and coffee.

The price for the brunch at peppers! is HUF 8100 for children 14 years of age or younger it is half price, under the age of 6 it's complimentary. Starting at 12 until 3 pm.
